

Daniel H. Burnham (1846-1912), architect and planner of the city of Chicago (1909) and Manila (1905) and Baguio (1909) in the Philippines.

St. Vincent de Paul (1581-1660) founded the Congregation of the Mission, the Daughters of Charity and others organizations dedicated to the service of the poor in Paris, France.

Daniel H. BURNHAM MEETS VINCENT de Paul

A DEPAUL UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE ON COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
ON THE OCCASION OF DANIEL H. BURNHAM CENTENNIAL
CELEBRATIONS FOR THE PLAN OF CHICAGO AND THE PLAN OF MANILA

Thursday April 9, 2009
2:00 – 5:00 PM *free admission
DePaul Conference Center
1 E. Jackson Blvd, Room 8005

Coordinated by Elizabeth Wilp ewilp@depaul.edu, Burnham Project Coordinator , DePaul University's Chaddick Institute for Metropolitan Development in collaboration with the College of Architecture of Adamson University in Manila, Philippines
<http://burnhammeetsvincentdepaul.blogspot.com>

