

STRATEGIC PLANNING IN DUPAGE COUNTY

Thursday November 12, 2009
5:45-7:00 p.m.

DuPage County's Path to Excellence: A Practical Application of Innovation and Strategy

DePaul University
School of Public Service
14 E Jackson Street, Suite 1600
Dublin Room

DuPage County is in the midst of balancing the need to expand its workforce and economic growth opportunities with the increasing needs of its retiring population. The importance of building a robust, transparent and flexible strategic management system is critically important to the journey of DuPage County as it strives to meet the needs of its citizens and add value to its communities. Tim Trotter, Manager of Strategic Planning for DuPage County and Randall Rollinson, President of LBL Strategies, Ltd. will outline the strategic and innovative planning and implementation process being utilized by DuPage county.
