

CATHOLICS & COAL

This panel profiles the Catholic response to the environmental and human injustices that result from coal mining in the U.S. and the Philippines. Joining us from West Virginia is MICHAEL IAFRATE, doctoral candidate in theology and co-coordinator of the Catholic Committee of Appalachia, which stands in solidarity with the region's poor against issues like the radical "mountaintop removal" form of coal mining.

And from Mindoro Island, Philippines, is FR. EDWIN GARIGUEZ, executive secretary of the National Secretariat for Social Action/Caritas Philippines and recipient of the 2012 international Goldman Environmental Prize for his work leading a grassroots movement against an illegal mine on Mindoro.
