

A THEOLOGY OF WEALTH AND SECURITY

In today's global context of widespread violence and insecurity, what kind of anthropology and theology of wealth and security can we promote in order to guarantee the well-being of societies living together in peace? In this talk, CWCIT visiting scholar Nathanäel Yaovi Soede explores the experience and testimony of Jesus in Luke 4:1-21, when he is tested in the wilderness, as a way forward toward this goal.
