

NAMING JESUS AS "HEALER" IN AFRICA

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28

6:00PM RECEPTION

6:30PM PRESENTATION

DEPAUL STUDENT CENTER, RM. 314B
2250 N. SHEFFIELD AVE.

REV. LAURENTI MAGESA

HEKIMA COLLEGE & TANGAZA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE (NAIROBI, KENYA)

Onyankopon Adom Nti Biribiara Beye Yie, "By God's grace, all will be well."

This saying corresponds with the image , a symbol of hope, providence, and faith in the Adinkra culture of West Africa. And for CWCIT visiting scholar Laurenti Magesa, this image visually expresses his talk's focus—that Jesus, especially for the peoples of sub-Saharan Africa, embodies the African worldview of ongoing healing and life's flourishing through his life, teaching, death, and resurrection. Recognized by DePaul in 2014 with an honorary doctorate, Rev. Magesa is a groundbreaking theologian from Tanzania whose work has redefined the study of African Catholicism.

All are welcome, free of charge & discounted parking available at 2231 N. Sheffield (with validation)
