

“Living Faithfully” in a Global Age: The Global Religious Resurgence and the Struggle for Justice

Thursday, January 10, 2013

6:00-6:30 p.m. Reception

6:30-8:00 p.m. Presentation

DePaul Student Center
Rm. 120A
2250 N. Sheffield Ave.
Chicago, IL 60614

Free & open to the public
Discounted parking with validation
at Sheffield Parking Garage
(2331 N. Sheffield)

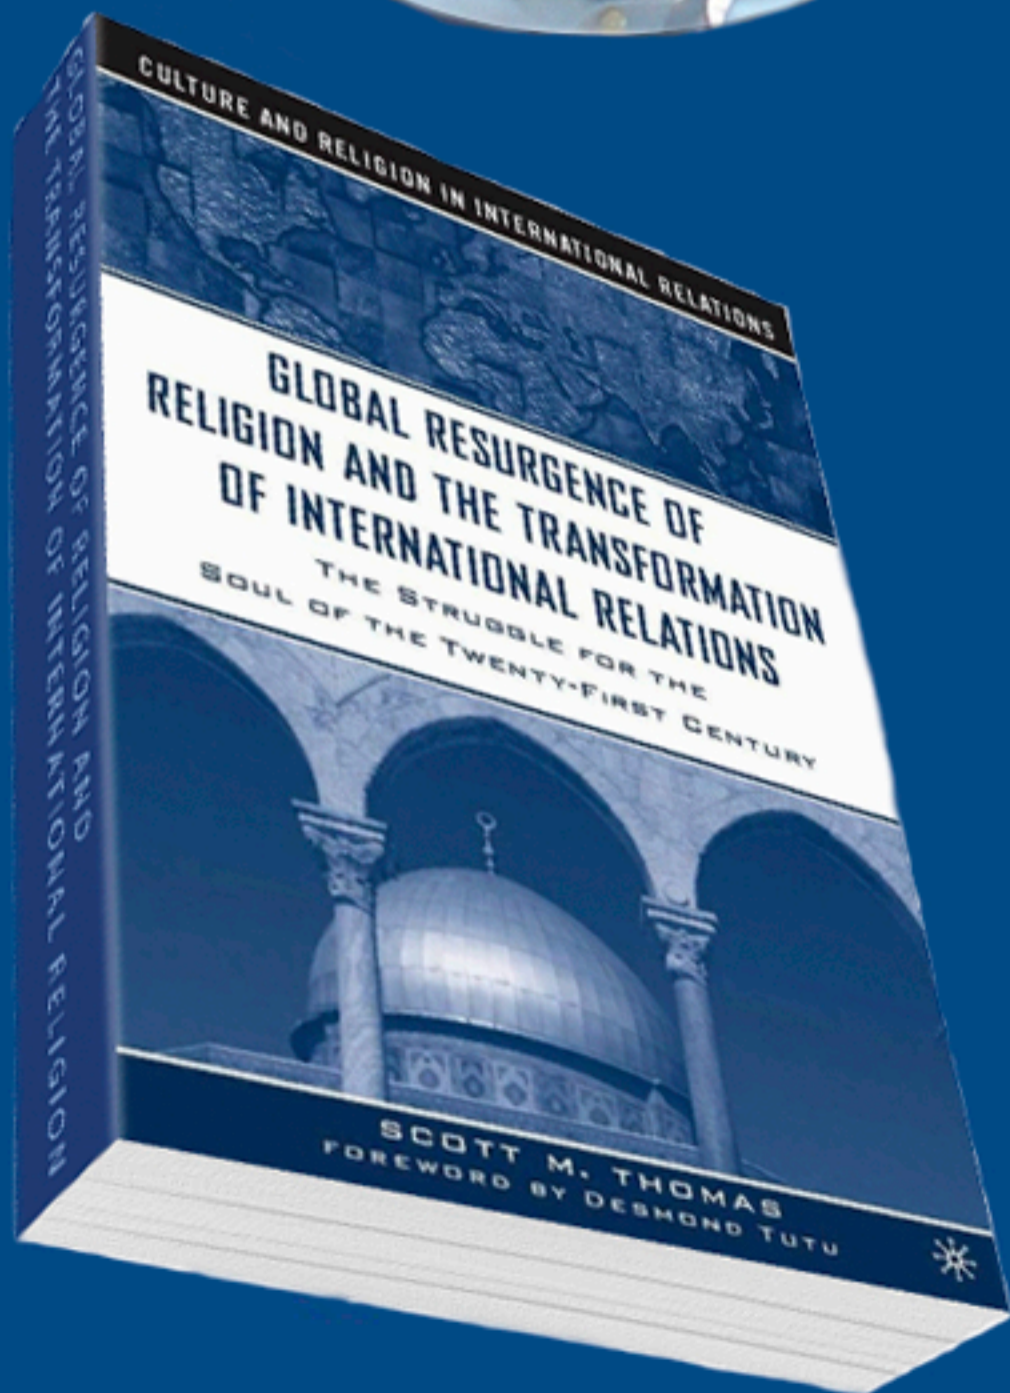

Lecture by

Scott M. Thomas

Join Scott M. Thomas, PhD, to discuss some of the main themes regarding religion and world politics in the 21st century, based on his articles

- “A Globalized God?” (Foreign Affairs, 2010)
- “Living Faithfully & Living Critically in a Global Age” (London School of Economics’ Millennium: Journal of International Studies, 2010)

A research fellow at Heythrop College at the University of London, Dr. Thomas also lectures in international relations at the University of Bath (United Kingdom).

Sponsored by:
Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology (CWCIT)
<http://las.depaul.edu/cwcit> cwcit@depaul.edu