

Allison Woodward

Hometown

Chicago, IL

Recent positions include:

DePaul Graduate Student; Chaddick Institute Graduate Assistant

About

Allison Woodward just completed her first year in the International Public Service Program. She is also a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer, having served in Benin (West Africa) from 2019–2020 in the education sector. Prior to joining the Peace Corps, she received a degree in Political Science and Communications from Auburn University. She is passionate about public service and is interested in community development. When she is not working at Chaddick, Allison enjoys training for marathons, exploring Chicago, and swimming in Lake Michigan.

Notable memory

The best part of working closely with the Chaddick scholars and the Chaddick Institute is being able to meet and network with so many like-minded individuals. Also, being Prof. Schwieterman's Graduate Assistant has been such an immeasurable learning experience and an incredible opportunity.