Hometown

Rancho Cucamonga, CA

Recent positions include:

DePaul Graduate Student; Co-Founder/Advisor, Riaaya: Development and Culture

About

Carrie Craig is in the International Public Service Program and working towards a Community Development Certificate. She is also a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer, having served in Morocco from 2013-

2016 in the youth development sector. Prior to joining the Peace Corps, she was active in community development and affordable housing policy in San Francisco. She plans to use the knowledge and experience gained at DePaul to make a difference domestically and internationally. Her interests are wide-ranging, but all centered on helping people.

Notable memory

“The best part of the Chaddick Institute was how much it enabled me to meet so many new and wonderful people. These fellow current students, alumni, and other professionals helped expand my understanding of metropolitan planning and development. Through the scholar program, I was able to learn so much about Chicagoland and beyond that will help me in my future.”
