

Stijin van der Slot

Hometown

Amsterdam, Netherlands

Recent positions include:

Urban Mobility Planner

About

After graduation and enjoying the Chicago summer, I worked for Nelson Nygaard (mobility consultants) in Boston. A year later, I left the US to travel through Cuba and Mexico before moving back to Amsterdam. In my work for Goudappel, I focus on mobility justice and the transition to less car domination (even in Dutch cities).

And yes, I'm still playing soccer and riding bikes in my spare time!

Notable memory

I especially enjoyed the various bike studies with Riley, Joe and Scott and connecting with all the people at Chaddick.