

DEPAUL

night at the
art institute of chicago for faculty, staff, students and guests

... THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 2017 ...

5:00PM - 8:00PM

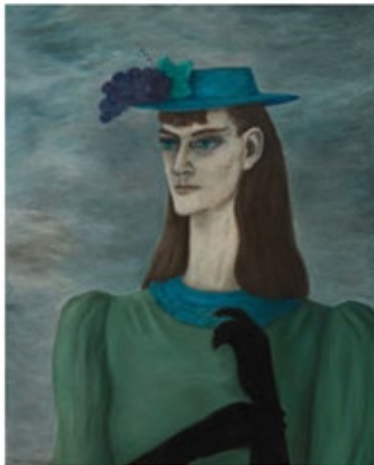

159 E Monroe Ave | Modern Wing Entrance

5:45pm

The Assumption of the Virgin
European Painting & Sculpture Wing
Gallery 211

Simone Zurawski, professor of History of Art and Architecture, discusses El Greco's Assumption and leads group through newly installed gallery of Medieval and Renaissance Art.

6:00pm

Self-Portrait of My Sister
American Art Wing
Gallery 262

Joanna Gardner-Huggett, professor of History of Art and Architecture, will discuss Chicago's Magic Realist Gertrude Abercrombie's Self-Portrait from 1941.

6:15pm - Mortality, Love, and Remembrance
Modern and Contemporary Wing
Gallery 295A

Mia Lopez, Assistant Curator at DePaul Art Museum, discusses mortality, love, and remembrance in the work of Felix Gonzalez-Torres.

Show your DePaul ID
at the Modern Wing Entrance
for on-site event
registration!

Enjoy concurring museum events with your entry!