

Student Art on Campus: Residence Hall Collection 2019 Call for Entry

Description

Art in the Residence Halls is a component of the Art on Campus initiative at DePaul University, and it is a partnership to showcase student artwork on campus between DePaul University's Department of Housing Services and the Department of Art, Media, and Design in the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences. This initiative is designed to build a connection for students with residential spaces and a variety of different types of student artworks, with a goal of adding more student art works to this collection each year.

Awards and Prizes

The student art works will be displayed in a campus residence hall. The location will be determined based on the size and substance of the works selected. Up to 4 student's artworks will be selected and awarded a purchase prize of $500.00 each. The selected works will be professionally framed, installed, and included in the Department of Housing Services Student Art Collection, which they will then own. This Spring 2019 collection will be the third installation of acquiring student artworks for the Student Art on Campus Residence Hall Collection. The Department of Housing Services sponsors this student event and will also host a reception for the selected students in the Spring, tentatively scheduled for May 23, 2019 1:30-3:00PM (Save the Date).

Guidelines and Dates:

Eligibility: Art, Media, and Design students who are declared Majors and/or Minors who have completed 92 credits or more and are currently enrolled at the time of their application are invited to submit works created in any art media. Submitted works must have been created while a student at DePaul and can be no larger than 48" in any direction, works must be able to hang on the wall with no special installation requirements (for example, works that rely on electrical or auditory components cannot be accommodated at this time).
