PERSONAL STATEMENT. Please submit a 200- to 300-word personal statement that focuses on your qualifications and goals for becoming a graduate assistant (please see assistantship duties below). You should include mention of any of the following: previous experience you have had in teaching or tutoring; experience in publishing, writing, and editing; experience in creative content design; experience in blogging/desktop publishing; Web-based skills and proficiency in publication-based software (Adobe Creative Suite esp. Photoshop/InDesign, SharePoint, HTML, Word Press, Publisher, etc.); and relevant office and clerical experience. Also discuss how an assistantship shapes your post-master's degree plans. Attach your statement to this form.

ASSISTANTSHIP DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. Graduate assistants perform a variety of duties, including tutoring in DePaul's University Center for Writing-based Learning, editorial work on scholarly journals, Web-based publishing, and administrative duties in service to the English department's two graduate programs and undergraduate program. These positions require high scholarly achievement, high proficiency in writing and editing, and strong organizational and "people" skills. Graduate assistants work 20 hours per week at DePaul's Lincoln Park and/or Loop Campuses. Work schedules, which change from quarter to quarter, are flexible enough to accommodate the student's classes and other personal responsibilities. The work calendar runs from early September until Thanksgiving and from early January until early June, with a two-week spring break in late March.

* FOR M.A. IN ENGLISH APPLICANTS ONLY: GRE SCORES. Please submit scores of the GRE General Test electronically to DePaul (Institution Code: 1165).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: If your letters of recommendation were sent to you, please make sure that they are in sealed envelopes with the recommender's signature written across the envelope flap. Place all assistantship materials (this application form, your personal statement, hard copy of your writing sample, and all letters of recommendation) in a large envelope and send to the address indicated below. MAE Applicants: Make sure that your GRE general test scores have been sent electronically to DePaul (Institution Code: 1165). All materials must reach us no later than January 15, 2018.

Mail to: Graduate Assistantships, Department of English, DePaul University, 2315 N. Kenmore Ave., Suite 312, Chicago, IL 60614.
