

CURRICULUM VITAE
Jason D. Hill, Ph.D.
Professor of Philosophy
Honors Distinguished Faculty www.jasondamianhill.com

Department of Philosophy
De Paul University
2352 North Clifton Ave—Suite 150
Chicago, IL 60614
Tel: 773-325-4236
Fax: 773-325-7268
Jhill6@depaul.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Philosophy, Purdue University, May, 1998
M.A., Philosophy, Purdue University, August, 1995
B.A., magna cum laude, Philosophy, Georgia State University, August, 1991

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Ethics, Social and Political Philosophy, Philosophical Psychology, Philosophy of Education,
American Foreign Policy,

AREAS OF COMPETENCE

20th Century Analytic Philosophy, Comparative Literature

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Honors Distinguished Faculty	January, 2015
Professor of Philosophy, De Paul University	July 1, 2012
Associate Professor of Philosophy, De Paul University	2005-2012
Assistant Professor of Philosophy, DePaul University	2000-2005

Visiting Associate Professor, Columbia University

Fall 2006

Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville 1998-2000

ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

Director of Teaching Practicum, Philosophy Department, De Paul University 2010-present

Director of Undergraduate Studies, Philosophy Department, DePaul University 2001—2003

HONORS AND AWARDS

Impact Award, Given by in recognition of Courage and Leadership, Washington D.C. December, 2019

Beacon Award in Education for Courage and Leadership given by The Zionist Organization, Philadelphia, October 2019

Annie Edson Taylor Award given by the Freedom Center for Courage and Leadership, July 2019

Honors Distinguished Faculty (Award bestowed by De Paul University Honors Society), January 2015 for outstanding teaching and scholarship)

Postdoctoral Fellow, Society for the Humanities, Cornell University, 1999-2000

Wicklender Fellow in Business and Professional Ethics, DePaul University 2007-2008

PUBLICATIONS

Books

WHAT DO WHITE AMERICANS OWE BLACK PEOPLE: Racial JUSTICE IN THE AGE OF POST-OPPRESSION [Bombardier Books/Post
Hill Press, October 2021)

We Have Overcome: An Immigrant's Letter to the American People (Bombardier book/Post hill Press, 2018)

Civil Disobedience and the Politics of Identity: When We Should Not Get Along
[Palgrave MacMillan, July 2013]

Beyond Blood Identities: Post Humanity in the 21st Century. [Lanham, MD: Rowman and Littlefield, 2009] Volume Two of the Cosmopolitan Trilogy.

Becoming a Cosmopolitan: What it means to be a Human Being in the New Millennium [Lanham, MD: Rowman and Littlefield, 2000; Paperback Edition, 2011] Volume One of the Cosmopolitan Trilogy.

Select Scholarly Articles

“The Evaluative Basis for Multidimensional Justice.” Translated into Chinese and published in China, International Studies of Social Sciences (Fall 2010), pp. 20-35

“Moral Hierarchy: One Path to Evolutionary Consciousness.” What is Enlightenment? November-December 2005, fall 2005, pp. 38-45

“Coming out as a Moral Cosmopolitan” in What is Enlightenment? December-February 2004, pp. 80-83

Book Chapters:

Is It Moral To Hold a Racial Identity? A Cosmopolitan Response in The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Race. Edited by Naomi Zack (Oxford University Press, Winter, 2017), pp.402-411

In Praise of the Virtuous Cosmopolitan” in Philosophy and the Mixed-Race Experience, Ed. By Tina Botts (Lexington Books, Summer, 2016) pp. 269-289

“The Right to Permanent Residence as a Human Right? A Kantian Inquiry,” in Pragmatic Politics and Pragmatist Culture, ed. Peter Hare, Cerasel Cuteanu [Cambridge: Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2009] pp. 102-117

“Is Global Liberalism Paternalistic?: A Moral Cosmopolitan Inquiry,” Translated into Czech, Filosofia, Globální spravedlnost a demokracie (ed.) Marek Hrubec, [Prague: The Czech Academy of Science and the Institute of Philosophy, Charles University Press, fall 2005], pp.127-156

“Save Lives! Defy Nature,” in Remix: Reading and Composing Culture, ed. Catherine G. Latrell,

[New York: St. Martin's Press, 2005] pp. 524-527

Works in Progress (Books)

Goddesses of Death: Anne Sexton, Sylvia Plath and the Moral Meaning of Life

Cultural Magazines

Jason Hill is a Shillman Journalism Fellow at the David Hortwitz Freedom Center. A Fully display of his articles of his articles may be found at www.frontpagemagazine.com

Jason D. Hill is also a columnist for The Hill, Commentary Magazine and The Federalist. For a select list of his most popular articles as well as his media appearances see: www.jasondamianhill.com

SCHOLARLY LECTURES AND PRESENTATIONS

Conferences

“Moral Forgetting and the Cosmopolitan Project.” Delivered at the 37th Annual Comparative Literature Conference, “Citizen of the World,” Dept. of Comp. Literature and Classics, Calif. State Univ., Long Beach, March 1-2, 2002

“Ontological Rebellion and the Pathology of Race.” Delivered at the American Philosophical Association, Pacific Division, San Francisco, March 2001

“Race and the Racial Contract,” a critique of Charles Mills’ The Racial Contract, APA Eastern Division, Washington DC, December 1998.

“Moral Cosmopolitanism,” Philosophy Born of Struggle Conference, New School for Social Research, New York, New York, October 1998.

Invited Lectures:

Should the Black Race Die So That the Individual Can Rise? The Heroic Race Traitor and the Road to a New Transracial Future*, talk delivered as a key note address at the invitation of the Objective Standard in July 2021

.
Leading in the Midst of Chaos: Creating America's New Manifest Destiny*
Invited talk delivered by the National Conservatism conference in Orlando from October 31-
Nov 2, 2021.

* Three Existential Threats Facing Jewish Civilization: How to Combat and Defeat Them
Sunday November 21, 2021 - 11 a.m. Invited Talk by the Gross Family Center
Indian Spring Country Club, Boynton Beach
11501 El Clair Ranch Road, Boynton Beach, FL 33437

The 1964 Civil Rights Act and the Third Founding of America* . Talk delivered February (4-6th) 2022, as a keynote address by invitation from the Intercollegiate Studies Institute (ISI) which held a "Society Leadership Conference," on Amelia Island, FL.

*What Do White Americans Owe Black People: Racial Justice in the Age of Post-Oppression at St. Louis University in St. Louis, MS. Invitation from the Intercollegiate Studies Institute (ISI)
On April 30th 2022, to offer an eight hour seminar on my new book.

On the Present State of the Academy*, invited talk delivered at On May 14, 2022 at the Intercollegiate Studies Institute's Homecoming Weekend Conference in Wilmington, DE

On the Moral and Epistemological Revolution of The Founding Fathers*, invited talk delivered
On May 14, 2022 at the Intercollegiate Studies Institute's Homecoming Weekend Conference in Wilmington, DE

"Cosmopolitanism And the Meaning and Politics of Identity, Invited talk given at Conference on Race and Philosophy, University of San Diego, Feb 21, 2021

"The Moral meaning of America" Keynote address delivered at 1776 conference organized by Bob Woodson in Washington DC, December 2020.

"Leadership, Belonging and The Future of America," Talk delivered at the Impact Awards Ceremony, Washington D.C, December, 2019.

"The Future of Western Civilization and The Future of Europe," Keynote address delivered to the Zionist Organization of America, October, 2019

"Morality, Leadership and The Nature of Moral Civilization," Keynote address delivered at the Freedom Center Awards Ceremony, Palm Beach Florida, July 2019

"Race Immigration and the American Dream in the 21st Century."
Defining Moral Personality in the 21st Century Era of Globalism"

Two lectures delivered at St Olaf's College—The Institute for Freedom and Community
January 2019

“Defining Ethical Zionism in an Age of Anti-Semitism,”
Talk delivered at Enterprise for Truth in the Middle East, July 2019

Justice, Conflict and Resolution in the Middle East,”
Talk delivered at the ZOA Conference in Washington, D.C, July 2019

“A Philosophical Analysis of Jewish Contributions to Western Civilization”
Lecture delivered to StandWithUS, May 2019

Race, Ethnicity and Community,”
Have We Overcome? A Philosophical Analysis of Race, Politics and Liberalism Today”
Two Lectures delivered at University of Central Florida, October 2018

“Cosmopolitanism: A Brief Introduction”
“The Moral Scope of Cosmopolitanism”
“Becoming a Cosmopolitan: Agency and Reason.” Three talks delivered at Rockdale
University, IL, April 2018

“What's Wrong with Multiculturalism? A Cosmopolitan Inquiry: Keynote talk delivered at Salisbury University, MD, April 2018

“We Have Overcome: An Immigrant's Letter to the American People,” Talk delivered at the John Marshall School of Law, March 2018

“National Security and Americanism” in the 21st Century,” Talk given at the Center for Security
Policy, Washington, D.C., November , 2017

“Advancing Liberty and American Values in the 21st Century,” Keynote address delivered at Judicial Watch, Washington D.C., November, 2017

“Moral and Political Friendships as Advocacy in the Age of Neo-Liberalism and Global Conflict,” Czech Academy of Science, Prague, Czech Republic, May 2017

“Moral and Political Friendships as Advocacy in the Age of Neo-Liberalism,” Neoliberalism and Social Democracy Conference, DePaul University, 2017 Chicago, IL

“Navigating Free Speech on University Campuses,” Key-note Lecture delivered at STRIVE Conference, Atlanta, GA, November 5, 2016. Five Lectures on the role of free speech and reason in college life delivered over the weekend of November 5-6, 2016.

“Individualism and Vocational Options,” Key-note lecture delivered at Strive Conference, Atlanta, GA, November 8, 2015. Participated in and conducted four workshops on: the role of reason in public life; the role of art in philosophy; philosophy and the public intellectual; and cognition and pedagogy.

“Biological Collectivism and The Politics of Racial Identity”, keynote lecture delivered at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division Meeting, Washington, D.C. January 7, 2016

“Who Is Afraid of Racial and Ethnic Self-Cleansing,” Invited lecture: “Global Mixed-Race Conference, November 13-17, 2014, De Paul University.

“Philosophical Arguments against the Burka” Invited public lecture given at the Enlighten Next Cultural Center, Cambridge, MA, April 24, 2014.

“The Ethics and Mores of Race.” Talk given at the American Philosophical Association, Central Division, New Orleans, February 21, 2013.

Knock, Knock—Who is There? Philosophical Meditations on the Impersonal I.” Invited public lecture given at the EnlightenNext Cultural Center, Cambridge, MA, February 16, 2013.

“When Should We Speak for Others?” Advocacy and Political Friendships,” invited lecture at National University of Singapore, November 20, 2012; (5 Lectures)

Same talk at Nanyang Technology University, Singapore, November 21, 2012. (5 lectures)

Same talk at The People’s University of China, November 29, 2013. (5 lectures)

“When Should We Speak for Others? Advocacy and Political Friendships,” invited lecture at Fudan University, Shanghai, China, November 22, 2012. (5 lectures)

Invited lecture and workshop on the history and philosophy of Cosmopolitanism, Peking University, Beijing, China, November 28, 2012. (6 lectures)

“Towards a Political and Cosmopolitan Conception of Friendship.” Invited Lecture at Purdue University, Lafayette, IN September 13, 2012

“Hiding from Humanity: The Burka and the Obliteration of Human Identity.” Keynote Lecture delivered at City College of London in Great Britain, May 25, 2012. (Two Lectures)

“Illiberal Values in Liberal Europe: A Rawlsian Inquiry.” Plenary Lecture, Philosophy and Social Science Conference in Prague, Czech Republic, May 2011.

“Moral Evolution in the Cosmopolitan Tradition.” Truman College, May 2, 2011.

“When We Should Not Get Along: Cosmopolitan Values in a Multicultural World.” Two lectures delivered at the University of Oregon, April 27, 2011

“Moral Becoming and the Evolution of Leadership,” Martin Luther King Jr. Presidential Address Morehouse College, January 2011

Organized conference on Jason Hill’s “Becoming a Cosmopolitan: What it means to be a Human Being in the New Millennium,” and “Beyond Blood Identities: Post Humanity in the 21st Century.” Conference was organized by the Economic & Research Council and University of Wolverhampton in England, December 15-17, 2010.

“Kant and the Right to Permanent Residence,” Invited lecture, New School for Social Research, Philosophy Department, September 16, 2010

“Cosmopolitanism, Freedom and Subjugation.” Two-week seminar taught at Central European University’s philosophy department in Budapest, Hungary July 12—July 26, 2010 (Fourteen seminars taught)

“On Nancy Fraser’s Scales of Justice”. Paper delivered at the Philosophy and Social Science Conference, May 16, 2009, Prague, Czech Republic.

Eleven-page commentary of Nancy Fraser’s “Abnormal Justice,” at the 2008 Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association. Paper delivered in December 2008

“Cosmopolitan Education,” six block seminars taught at the University of Debrecen, Hungary, Philosophy Department, October 2008. Thinkers covered: Rousseau and Kant.

“The Right to Permanent Residence as a Human Right? A Kantian Inquiry.” The Reinhold Niebuhr Lecture Delivered at Elmhurst College, April 30, 2008

“Kant and the Rights of Strangers.” Philosophy and Social Science Conference, Prague Czech Republic, May 14-18, 2008

“Towards a Cosmopolitan Business Ethics,” paper delivered for the Trustees of the Institute of Business and Professional in June 2008

“Is There a Right to Permanent Residence as a Human Right?” Two papers delivered at the College of Letters and Social Sciences, Constantin Brancusi University, Targu-Jiu, Romania. Philosophy Conference Program: Democracy, Liberalism, Pragmatism. September 2007

“The Socialization Impact of Corporate Culture and What a Cosmopolitan Business Ethic Has to Say About it.” Three invited talks at the Net Impact Conference in Nashville, TN, November 2007

“Cosmopolitanism, Liberty and Equality,” Sunday, August 26, 2007; “Cosmopolitanism, Multiculturalism and Jewish Suffering,” Monday, August 27, 2007. Four invited lectures by the Henrich-Boell-Stiftung Brandenburg Foundation in Potsdam, Germany.

Seyla Benhabib’s Philosophy of Culture: Critical Theory, Discourse Ethics, Deliberative Democracy and The Creation of Cosmopolitan Norms. Invited paper for Philosophy and Social Science Conference in Prague, Czech Republic, May 10-13, 2007.

Special panel devoted to discussion by two distinguished Czech philosophers on Jason Hill’s article “Je globální liberalismus paternalistický? Otázky morálního kosmopolitismu,” in Prague, Czech Republic, May 2006. Article was published in a special issue of Filosofia, Globální spravedlnost a demokracie (ed.) Marek Hrubec., published by The Czech Academy of Science.

“Transforming Our Humanity in the 21st Century: 12 Steps to Moral Evolution and World Citizenship,” delivered at Voices from the Edge International Speakers Forum: New York City, December 1, 2005; Cambridge, Mass., December 2, 2005.

“Post-postmodern Ethics and Morality.” Invited talk and two-day teaching seminar to The Graduate Institute at Mitchell College, January 28th and 29th 2006.

“The Foundations of Moral Cosmopolitanism and the Moral Implications of Tribalism in the 21st Century.” Three-hour workshop on Moral Cosmopolitanism and Social Identity at the Infinity Foundation, Highland Park, Illinois. Invited by Nancy Grace Marder, Executive Director.

“Reconstructing the Moral Self from the Debris of “flexible,” fragmented 21st Century Capitalism.”

“Immanuel Kant’s Identity Politics, the Cosmopolitan Project and the Trauma of Ideology.” Invited paper for Philosophy and Social Science Conference in Prague, Czech Republic, May 19-22, 2005. (3 Lectures)

“World Citizenship, Moral Compassion and the Legacy of Dr. King.” Delivered to 2000 students and faculty at Starr Mill High School, Fayetteville, GA, February 2004. Invited by Karen G. Smith. Presented with the Martin Luther King Jr. Award.

“Moral Culture and Cosmopolitanism.” Delivered at the Czech Academy of Science, Prague, May 21-25, 2004. Philosophy and Social Science Conference.

“Moral Reasoning from a Cosmopolitan Perspective.” Delivered at the Czech Institute of Philosophy, Prague, May 16, 2003. Philosophy and Social Science Conference.

“Moral Compassion and Moral Responsibility” Public Lecture at Bradley University, February 19, 2003. Invited by Professor Andrew Kelly, Philosophy Department.

“The American Intellectual in the Age of the Moral Energy Crisis.” Keynote address at the Theory and Cultural Studies Colloquium, Purdue University, September 14, 2001.

“Is Global Liberalism Paternalistic? A Moral Cosmopolitan Inquiry” and “Cosmopolitanism and the Conceptual Ambitiousness of Tribal Designators.” The Prague Lectures, delivered at Charles University and the Institute of Philosophy, Prague, June 2001.

Workshop on Becoming a Cosmopolitan and “Is Global Liberalism Paternalistic?” Invited by Martha Nussbaum and the University of Chicago Law and Philosophy Workshop, January 8, 2001.

“Cosmopolitan Democracy,” American Philosophical Association, Eastern Division Convention December 2000.

“Ideal Paternalism: A Cosmopolitan Defense,” Georgia State University, October 2000.

“Globalization: After the End of History: Dilemmas of Global Liberalism,” Re-imagining Politics and Society, Millennium Conference sponsored by The Foundation for Meaning and Ethics, May 18-20, 2000, New York City. A Workshop on Becoming a Cosmopolitan also took place.

“Cosmopolitanism and Morality.” Philosophy and the Social Sciences, Dubrovnik, Croatia, April 10-15, 2000.

“Burying Philosophy to Resurrect Art: Hegel and Postmodernism,” Conference on Hegel and Aesthetics at Cornell University, April 2000.

“Introducing Cosmopolitanism,” Invited, Department of Philosophy, Binghamton University, October 1999.

“Moral Reasoning and the Ethics of Culture, paper delivered to The Society for the Humanities, Cornell University, February 2000.

Commentator on “Why Collective Moral Responsibility is Defensible Despite Multiple Community Memberships,” by Kai C. Wong at the APA Eastern Division, December 1999.

“Cosmopolitanism” Bentley College, January 10, 1998

“Cosmopolitanism,” Southern Illinois University, January 31, 1998.

SERVICE

Department

- Director of Teaching Practicum 2010-present
- Graduate Affairs Committee 2011-present
- Undergraduate Committee 2000-2010
- Personnel Committee 2008-2009
- Chair of the Public Events Committee 2009-2010
- Budgetary Oversight Committee 2008

University

- Program Review Committee 2012-present
- Philosophical Inquiry Domain 2008-present
- Campus Recreation Advisory Committee 2010- present
- Grade Challenge Review Committee, Alternate 2011-2012
- Humanities Committee, Alternate 2011-present

Service to the Community

Media Appearances: www.jasondamianhill.com

Jason D. Hill and has been a professional writer and book author for over thirty years. He is a specialist in ethics and American politics and has been published in major magazines including The Federalist, Commentary Magazine, Spiked Magazine, and Salon. He is also a contributor to The Hill.

He has lectured and taught extensively on the subject in the United States, Europe and Asia. From 2010-2012, a consortium of four universities in England held a series of conferences devoted to Dr. Hill's post-human cosmopolitanism and adopted the moral vision contained therein as part of their mission statements. His scholarly articles have been published in anthologies and journals in Germany, the Czech Republic and The Netherlands. In addition, he has written for various magazines and newspapers in which he has brought the tenets of cosmopolitanism to a wide audience. He is also a well-respected motivational speaker. He has been interviewed regularly in various media outlets, including NBC's Today show, The Daily Caller Show, Fox News, Fox Business, Billy O'Reilly's 'NO Spin News,' NPR, NRATV and several other mainstream media. He is deeply committed to Moral Foundationalism, Moral Universalism and the absolutism of reason.

LANGUAGES

Reading Comprehension of French and Spanish

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

American Philosophical Association