Title of Paper:

Form

Please evaluate the clarity and effectiveness of the paper's philosophical prose, as well as its organization (i.e. how well its argument or discussion is structured and how well the reader is able to follow that structure).

Content

Please evaluate, to the best of your ability, the paper's presentation of its subject matter (i.e. its central texts or concepts, and how well it brings these to light for the reader). You may not be an expert in this area, but please comment then on how successful the author was in opening up the subject matter for a non-expert (if that was his or her aim).

Reviewer: _____

The student is encouraged to contact the reviewer in order to discuss improving this paper, or perhaps even his or her philosophical writing/research in general.

In your estimation, is this paper an example of adequate graduate-level work?
