

MASTER OF NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT

DEGREE DESCRIPTION

The Master of Nonprofit Management (MNM) at DePaul University builds competencies in leadership, management, ethics and advocacy, reflecting the areas of study important to today's nonprofit professional.

Integrating best practices in nonprofit management with DePaul's rich, globally focused curriculum, the MNM degree was designed specifically to correspond with the curriculum goals of the Nonprofit Academic Centers Council.

STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES

Graduate students in the School of Public Service (SPS) are encouraged to study abroad. SPS offers more opportunities for international study than other comparable programs. These unique one to two week study abroad trips allow both full-time and part-time students to participate.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Evening Courses. Classes are offered in the evening so you can learn alongside other motivated students.

Well-Respected Degree. With DePaul's impressive academic rankings and distinguished faculty, you'll graduate with a degree that's well-respected and speaks loudly to future employers. And, when you graduate, you'll become part of our alumni family—171,000 and growing—giving you the network you need to advance your career.

Career Outlook. Ninety-four percent of our 2014 SPS graduates were employed, pursuing advanced degrees or seeking neither after degree completion. Our graduates have gone on to work in nonprofit, for-profit, educational and governmental sectors.

Examples of recent employers of SPS graduates include:

- Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education
- Chicago Community Trust
- City of Chicago
- Department of Homeland Security
- Department of Veterans Affairs
- Environmental Protection Agency
