

IOTA IOTA IOTA

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES HONOR SOCIETY
DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

Dear Prospective Member:

Iota Iota Iota (Triota) is the academic honor society for the field of Women and Gender Studies. The purpose of the organization is to encourage academic achievement in Women and Gender Studies. Iota Iota Iota is named for the ancient goddesses: Inanna, Ishtar and Isis. We are the DePaul chapter of this honor society.

We encourage you to join this society if you are a major, minor, or graduate student pursuing your work in Women and Gender Studies. Students who wish to join must have taken at least 3 classes listed under Women and Gender Studies prior to applying (12 credit hours) and must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in all of your Women and Gender Studies classes. Students must also have an overall GPA of 3.0.

In order to apply, you must provide us with:

- The completed application form
- An unofficial copy of your transcript (this can be found on campus connect under "course history")
- Annual dues of $20

Please submit this completed application form, transcript, and dues to the Triota mailbox (located in the Women's and Gender Studies office, 5th floor SAC).

If you have any questions or need to set up a meeting, please contact Triota co-presidents Tracey Harkins (freethekz@gmail.com) or Heather Lofton (lofton589@gmail.com); or DePaul professor Dr. Robin Mitchell (rmitch19@depaul.edu).
