

A DIALOGUE ON IMMIGRATION:

Australian and Middle Eastern,
Catholic and Islamic Perspectives

October 31, 2012
6:30-8 p.m.

Lincoln Park Campus
Levan Center, Room 100
2322 N. Kenmore Ave.

PANELISTS

Rev. Michael Tate
Zaher Sahloul, Ph.D.

Americans are involved in a national debate regarding immigration policy. That debate is often limited in its perspective. The purpose of this interreligious engagement is to discuss other perspectives on immigration. Rev. Michael Tate of the University of Tasmania, Australia and Zaher Sahloul, Ph.D., of the Council of Islamic Organizations of Greater Chicago will lead the discussion.
