

CENTER FOR INTERRELIGIOUS ENGAGEMENT

WITHIN THE EYE OF THE STORM:

When Enemies Turn to Brothers

Reconciliation across the Israeli-Palestinian Divide

Film and Discussion

Monday, March 4

6 p.m.

DePaul University Art Museum

935 W. Fullerton Ave.

Bassam and Rami, a Palestinian and Israeli, were once dedicated fighters willing to kill and be killed for the sake of their nations. Left with the excruciating pain of bereavement when their daughters were killed in the conflict, they chose to do the unexpected: They set out on a joint journey to humanize the enemy in order to prevent the vicious cycle of retaliation in themselves and their societies. The film follows their two parallel stories and the moments where they converge, both in their personal experiences and peace work, as they face their shattered families, confused communities and opposing society.

Discussion led by Professor Frida Kerner Furman, Religious Studies, whose research explores the possibilities and processes of reconciliation in Israel-Palestine.

 DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

Free and open to the public. Parking is available at the Sheffield Parking Facility located at 2335 N. Sheffield Ave. and in the Clifton Parking Deck located at 2330 N. Clifton Ave. For more information, contact cie@depaul.edu or (773) 325-8215.

CENTER FOR INTERRELIGIOUS ENGAGEMENT

WITHIN THE EYE OF THE STORM:

When Enemies Turn to Brothers

Reconciliation across the Israeli-Palestinian Divide

Film and Discussion

Monday, March 4

6 p.m.

DePaul University Art Museum

935 W. Fullerton Ave.

Bassam and Rami, a Palestinian and Israeli, were once dedicated fighters willing to kill and be killed for the sake of their nations. Left with the excruciating pain of bereavement when their daughters were killed in the conflict, they chose to do the unexpected: They set out on a joint journey to humanize the enemy in order to prevent the vicious cycle of retaliation in themselves and their societies. The film follows their two parallel stories and the moments where they converge, both in their personal experiences and peace work, as they face their shattered families, confused communities and opposing society.

Discussion led by Professor Frida Kerner Furman, Religious Studies, whose research explores the possibilities and processes of reconciliation in Israel-Palestine.

 DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

Free and open to the public. Parking is available at the Sheffield Parking Facility located at 2335 N. Sheffield Ave. and in the Clifton Parking Deck located at 2330 N. Clifton Ave. For more information, contact cie@depaul.edu or (773) 325-8215.