

Gabriel M. de los Santos
CWCIT Junior Research Fellow (Manila, Philippines)

Gabriel de los Santos is a PhD candidate at the St. Vincent School of Theology (Manila) specializing in systematic theology. He earned his MA and EdD in religious values & education at De La Salle University (Manila). He has taught for many years as an associate professor at Adamson University (Manila), where he also served as a campus minister, vice dean for Pastoral Affairs, and vice director of Institutional Research & Planning.

His book, Doors to Life: Sacraments as Moments of Celebration, is used as a textbook at both Adamson and De La Salle. He is also co-author of Manual for Theology, Volume 2 (Responding to God's Call of Becoming Fully Human); Volume 3 (Celebrating God's Call of Becoming Fully Human); and Volume 4 (Transforming the World in the Spirit of St. Vincent de Paul).