

Kristine C. Meneses
CWCIT Junior Research Fellow (Manila, Philippines)

Kristine C. Meneses is a PhD candidate at the St. Vincent School of Theology (Manila) specializing in theological ethics. She earned her MA in religious studies in Maryhill School of Theology and is currently affiliated in the University of Santo Tomas. She is a member of the Ecclesia of Women in Asia. She is also an Associate Member of the Catholic Biblical Association of the Philippines (CBAP) and works in queer, post-structural and feminist Biblical scholarship. Her publications include “Deborah Disclosed: Wife of Lapidot or Fiery Lady” (Reimagining Marriage and Family in Asia, 2008). She is also involved in ministry to the deaf, which is her main advocacy.