

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN CHINA:

A Dynamic Faith-Filled Institution

What is the Church's relationship to the communist Chinese government?

How does the Church contribute to the nation's emerging civil society?

What is the difference between the registered and unregistered church?

a lecture by

REGINA WOLFE, PH.D.

Senior Wicklander Fellow

Institute for Business & Professional Ethics, DePaul University

Former Chair

U.S. Catholic China Bureau Board

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2013

5:30-6 p.m. Reception

6-7:30 p.m. Presentation and Discussion

Cortelyou Commons 2324 N. Fremont Ave.

Free and open to the public

Discounted parking with validation at Sheffield Parking Garage (2331 N. Sheffield).

More Information
las.depaul.edu/cwcit/events

Facebook.com/
WorldCatholicism

cwcit@depaul.edu

(773) 325-4158

Sponsored By Center for World
Catholicism & Intercultural
Theology (CWCIT)