

Danielle Nickaf

Hometown

Abuja, Nigeria

Position

Policy & Data Professional

About

Danielle graduated with her Master's in Public Policy in June 2024, and now works in the nonprofit sector in research and development. In her free time, Danielle loves reading- historical fiction and memoirs are her favorite, and crafting. She is learning to embroider.

Notable memory

Danielle's favorite part about being a Chaddick Scholar was connecting with a diverse group of graduate students and exploring new neighborhoods and cities she otherwise wouldn't have the opportunity to visit.