

Jared Smith

Hometown

Danville, IN

Position

Student Intern, City of Chicago, Department of Cultural Affairs & Special Events

About

Jared advocates for community wealth building, public arts stewardship, and development without displacement. In his free time, he can be found at the Music Box Theater or at Montrose

Beach.

Notable memory

Chaddick provides a space for students of all disciplines to discuss ways to make cities more equitable. Jared's favorite part of the Chaddick program is sharing research with the incredibly talented urbanists in the Scholar's Program.