

Shamiso Gombera

Hometown:

Harare, Zimbabwe

Position:

Graduate Assistant, DePaul University

Legal and Policy Professional

About

Shamiso graduates in June of 2025. Previously a company lawyer, Shamiso has spent many years working in the private sector for a prominent hospitality and leisure company in Zimbabwe. In her free time, Shamiso enjoys baking, reading, playing her guitar, singing and taking long walks.

Notable memory

Shamiso's favorite part about being a Chaddick Scholar was connecting and meeting other like-minded graduate students. She also enjoyed leaning about sustainable urban development and metropolitan planning through the day trip to Milwaukee and the half day trips to various neighborhoods within Chicago.
