

Ahtziri Alviso

Hometown

Des Plaines, IL

Recent Positions Include

Transfer Admission Counselor, DePaul University

About

Ahtziri is a Transfer Admission Counselor earning a Master of Public Policy degree and a certificate in Metropolitan Planning and Development at DePaul University. She holds a B.A. from DePaul University, with majors in International Studies and Spanish. Her work focuses on higher education policy as well as sustainable urban development and collaborates closely with community organizations to support outreach and facilitate discussions on local education and urban policy. Ahtziri is fluent in Spanish and enjoys exploring different coffee spots around Chicago.

Notable Memory

Ahtziri's favorite memory as a Chaddick Scholar was attending the 66th International Meeting of the Transportation Research Forum in St. Charles, MO and getting to know her fellow peers on the Amtrak ride there and back.