About

Alex is a GIS and Urban Studies professional whose involvement with Chaddick began in the Master's in Sustainable Urban Development at DePaul University. She holds a bachelor's degree in Environmental Science from the University of Redlands in southern California. Her professional interests include climate resiliency and adaptation in cities, public transportation, placemaking, and urban design. Alex loves to hike, camp, and play music.

Notable Memory

Alex's favorite memory as a Chaddick scholar is meeting the mayor of Homewood and learning about community development in the area.
