

Namatama Kapika

Hometown

Lusaka, Zambia

Recent Positions Include

Volunteer Dispatch Specialist, American Red Cross (ARC) Chicago

About

She is currently a volunteer at the ARC in Chicago and working part-time for the Chaddick Institute while finishing her master's in Nonprofit Management. In her free time, Namatama likes to try out different foods, read and cook

Notable memory

Namatama's favorite part about being a Chaddick Scholar is learning more about urban development and the different transportation systems and how they interact with one another.
