Crispin Glover

Thursday, January 30, 2014 • 6:00 - 9:00 P.M.
DePaul Student Center, 120 • 2250 N. Sheffield Ave.

The DePaul Humanities Center is proud to inaugurate a new annual series with actor, director, screenwriter, recording artist, author, and artist Crispin Hellion Glover.

Perhaps best known for playing eccentric characters in such Hollywood movies as Back to the Future, River's Edge, What's Eating Gilbert Grape, Willard, Charlie's Angels, and Alice in Wonderland, the multi-talented and multi-faceted Glover has also released an album (featuring the song "Clowny Clown Clown"), directed two films (What Is It? and It is Fine. EVERYTHING IS FINE!) and has published several books (including Rat Catching, Oak-Mot, Concrete Inspection, and What it is and How it is Done).

On January 30, Glover will present his one-hour "Big Slide Show," followed by an on-stage conversation/interview and Q&A with the audience. On January 31, Glover will also appear at Chicago's Music Box Theatre to screen his film It is Fine. EVERYTHING IS FINE! as well as show clips from his new cinematic work-in-progress.

The DePaul Humanities Center event is free and open to the public.
