

THE DEPAUL
HUMANITIES
CENTER
PRESENTS

The Year of

Pure Being

an evening of film screenings, fiction readings, theatrical performance, & live music

Monday, April 29, 2019
DePaul Student Center, 120
2250 N. Sheffield Avenue, Chicago
7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

The DHC concludes its “Year of Filth” series by investigating the idea of filth’s putative opposite: purity. From questions concerning what it means to adapt a work of art from an “original” to the relation between religious ecstasy and narcotic euphoria, from wondering if you are most yourself when in a psychologically dissociative state to whether the self can even interrogate itself, we problematize the false notion that it is possible for anything to go untouched by what is other and celebrate our impure purity together through the arts.

Featuring:

Greg Scott, DHC Fellow, Professor of Sociology, DePaul University
Melissa Lorraine, DHC Visiting Fellow, artistic director of Theatre Y
Maryse Meijer, author of Heartbreaker and Rag
Sunshine Boys (Freda Love Smith, Dag Juhlin, and Jaqueline Schimmel)

This event is free and open to the public. • Discounted parking available. See DHC staff for details. • If you require an ASL interpreter and know you will be attending, please contact the DHC at least two weeks before the event date.

go.depaul.edu/humanities • aperson@depaul.edu • 773-325-4580 • f DePaul Humanities Center @DPU_Hum_Ctr dpu_hum_ctr YouTube The DePaul Humanities Center

