

PORTRAITS OF LIBERATION ACROSS THE LATINO/A AMERICAS

Wednesday, May 21, 2014
7–8:30 p.m.

DePaul University Art Museum
935 W. Fullerton Ave.

SPEAKERS

Lavie Raven

Artist-educator and founder of The University of Hip Hop, Chicago

Desi Mundo

Artist-educator and founder of the Community Rejuvenation Project, California Bay Area

Virgilio Elizondo

Professor of Pastoral and Hispanic Theology, University of Notre Dame

MODERATOR

Christopher Tirres

Assistant Professor of Religious Studies and '13-'14 Humanities Center Fellow, DePaul University

How have intellectuals of Latin American descent connected conceptions of liberation and freedom, on the one hand, to mestizo expressions of spirituality, on the other? And how do contemporary artist-educators honor these contributions through their own street art today? Come to this inaugural art event to hear from the artists, see some of their work, and learn more about the rich traditions of liberation theology and liberation philosophy across the Latino/a Americas.