

Fall-Winter 2016

The end of 2016 has continued its busy pace. In October, the SSRC hosted Robin Burke and John Shanahan's Mess Hall talk on their project Reading Chicago Reading.

The SSRC announced solicitations for the 2nd Annual Research Retreat in Kenosha, Wisconsin, March 20-23, 2017 (during Spring Break). Applications are due January 31, 2017.

Additionally, in order to promote research in the DePaul community, we have created a short form for faculty to let us know when they publish articles and win grants. This information will be shared through our social media channels and may be featured on our blog.

On January 18, 2017 from 4pm-6pm in Cortelyou Commons, Director Greg Scott is hosting a discussion where four DePaul faculty members will talk about how their work interacts with notions of lightness and darkness. A reception will follow.

SPEAKING IN LIGHT AND DARK

Four DePaul scholars discuss how their work interacts with notions of darkness and lightness, literally or figuratively.

January 18, 2017
4:00-6:00 p.m.

Cortelyou Commons
2324 N. Fremont Ave.
Chicago, IL 60614

Free and open to the public.
Reception to follow.

RSVP: SSRC@depaul.edu

STEVE HARP
DANIEL MAKAGON
BILL SAMPSON
H. PETER STEEVES

* Photograph by Steve HARP

Methodologist Jessica Bishop-Royse will be conducting mini statistics and methods workshops in 2017, for the DePaul community. The first of these, on Stata File and Data Management, will take place in the SSRC Conference Room, in Suite 3100 of 990 West Fullerton on Thursday February 23, 2017 from 12pm-1pm.

Linda Levendusky reports on a paper award that WORD faculty Sarah Read won with her work on the Argonne National Laboratory.

WRITE ON SITE Continues

Due to the success and interest of Write on Site, the SSRC will continue to host the weekly writing event. The event will take place on the SSRC Conference Room on Fridays from 12-2 pm. Interested faculty, students, and staff are encouraged to bring lunch and their writing projects and work in the quiet solitude.

Technical Assistance and Service

The SSRC provides a wide variety of technical assistance and training opportunities. We can help with everything from training graduate students to helping you with data management and analysis problems. Requests for conference space, lab space, or data and service requests can be made HERE.

Get Messy with Us! Call for Presenters

We're looking for Mess Hall presenters! Faculty, students and staff are all welcome to present on their scholarship in a low stress environment. Past sessions have focused on methodological advice, feedback on book proposals, and simply sharing research. To propose a session, send an email to Linda Levendusky (email: llevendu@depaul.edu).

Upcoming Grant and Funding Opportunities

NEH Applications for Creating Humanities Communities Program \(2/15/2017\)

Warren E. Miller Scholarship for ICPSR's Quantitative Methods of Social Research \(3/31/2017\)

Dr. Eugene Owen Scholarship for ICPSR's Quantitative Methods of Social Research \(3/31/2017\)

American Political Science Association Small Grant Program \(4/1/2017\)

The Sydney S. Spivack Program in Applied Social Research and Social Policy \(2/15/2017\)

Contact Us!

Website Blog Facebook Twitter

UNSUBSCRIBE from this list