

Upcoming programs and news from the SSRC at DePaul University (October 2015).

presented by the social science research center
at DePaul University

re/search

October 2015

What skills do you think are essential for graduate students to have before they can assist on research projects? Take this five question survey to let us know what your graduate research assistants need to know in order to be helpful!!

We can train graduate students! We can help you learn more analytical skills!!
We can provide technical assistance for statistical software packages!!
Complete this form to start a service request.

Mapping Art History

Linda Levendusky sat down with Associate Professor Joanna Gardner-Huggett from the Department of History of Art and Architecture (HAA) to talk about her recent efforts in mapping and spatial analyses. Of interest are two Chicago feminist art collectives that began in 1973: Artemsia, which closed in 2003 and ARC, which is still in operation.

Crime in Chicago

Nandhini Gulasingam illustrates the tools that can be used to investigate phenomena. In it, she shows how text analysis, spatial analysis, and quantitative analysis can be used to describe, in this case, Crime in Chicago.

How Ben Epstein Works

This month, we profiled Ben Epstein, an assistant professor in the Dept. of Political Science.

October Mess Hall

Brendan McQuade, a visiting Assistant Professor in International Studies, presented on his field work regarding domestic intelligence programs on Thursday, October 22, 2015.

Get Messy with Us! Call for Presenters

We're looking for Mess Hall presenters. Faculty, students and staff are all welcome to present on their scholarship. Mess Hall sessions are a low-risk environment for people to talk about their work with colleagues from all over the university. Past sessions have focused on methodological advice, feedback on book proposals, and simply sharing research.

To propose a session, fill out this simple form.

Funding Opportunities of Interest

PeopleForBikes Foundation Seeking LOIs (Nov. 13, 2015).

American Psychological Foundation Seeking Applications for Research on Emotional Disturbance in Children (Mar 15, 2016).

Contact Us!

Website.

Blog.

Facebook.

Twitter.

UNSUBSCRIBE from this list