

re/research: The Newsletter for the Social Science Research Center at DePaul University

Spring/Summer 2017

In order to promote research in the DePaul community, we have created a short form for faculty to let us know when they publish articles and win grants. This information will be shared through our social media channels and may be featured on our blog.

On June 1, 2017 four DePaul faculty members presented their work at the first annual Research Roundtable in Arts and Letters. The event featured DePaul Faculty who have worked with SSRC Staff and Resources during the academic year. MORE.

RESEARCH SHOW & TELL

Wrap up the school year with a close look inside the projects and strategies that drove the scholarly investigations this year of 4 DePaul faculty served by the Social Science Research Center. In a research roundtable hosted by the SSRC, Associate Professors Ben Epstein (Political Science) and Sarah Read (Writing, Rhetoric and Discourse), Assistant Professor Shalija Sharma (International Studies and Refugee and Forced Migration Studies graduate program director), and CDM Professor Robin Burke (School of Computing) will share the fruits of and the efforts sustaining their research activities.

WHEN: Thursday, June 1, 4:30–6:00 pm

WHERE: Arts & Letters #404, 2315 N. Kenmore Ave.

Light refreshments will be served. Contact: SSRC@depaul.edu 773 325-2164

Transcription Tools

SSRC Senior Research Methodologist Jessica Bishop-Royse explored two new tools for transcribing audio files.

Speaking in Light and Dark Event

Projects Coordinator Linda Levendusky reported on the SSRC's Speaking in Light and Dark event.

WRITE ON SITE Continues

Due to the success and interest of Write on Site, the SSRC will continue to host the weekly writing event. The event will take place on the SSRC Conference Room on Fridays from 11-1 pm. Interested faculty, students, and staff are encouraged to bring lunch and their writing projects and work in the quiet solitude.

Technical Assistance and Service

The SSRC provides a wide variety of technical assistance and training opportunities. We can help with everything from training graduate students to helping you with data management and analysis problems. Requests for conference space, lab space, or data and service requests can be made HERE.

Get Messy with Us! Call for Presenters

We're looking for Mess Hall presenters! Faculty, students and staff are all welcome to present on their scholarship in a low stress environment. Past sessions have focused on methodological advice, feedback on book proposals, and simply sharing research. To propose a session, send an email to Linda Levendusky (email: llevendu@depaul.edu).

Upcoming Grant and Funding Opportunities

The Sociological Initiatives Foundation Invites Applications for Sociological Research (due: August 15, 2017).

Russel Sage Foundation Invites LOIs for Immigration Research (due: Aug. 21, 2017).

Louisville Institute is Accepting Applications for Research Projects (due: October 1, 2017).

Contact Us!

Website Blog Facebook Twitter

UNSUBSCRIBE from this list